Exam I:

1) EXAM I WILL BE DELAYED UNTIL MONDAY THE 27TH. I want to give you the weekend to study and prepare.

2) I have posted on the web page your preferred exam time. Recall that if you sent no preference email, I interpreted that as any time was good for you. If you prefer the other time, email (at egleymath2414@yahoo.com) ASAP.

Practice Exam:

The info for the Practice Exam is posted on the web page. The purpose of this is solely to be sure all the kinks are worked out before actual go time on exam day. Be sure to read that info and follow the directions. Also be sure to read the next posting for info on the practice exam.

Videos:

More videos for section 8.4 will be posted on Saturday.
