IMPORTANT; Notice that the dates for Exam IIII are the days immediately following the Thanksgiving Break. That's not the way I would prefer it, but that's the way the calendar fell. You need to be aware of that, and your planning might need to begin sooner rather than later.

ALSO: The key word is "Tentative". These dates are subject to change. If that occurs, I will give as much lead time as I can for you to sort things out.
