Communication

The best form of communication with me is email through Lone Star Online. Send all emails and appointment requests through Lone Star Online (D2L).

Classroom Behavior: The LSC Student Handbook [Student Conduct, Section 562.01d] states, "Disruptive activity that hinders other students' learning or deters an instructor from effective teaching will not be tolerated under any circumstances. In reference to "Online Learning" you must be considerate of your fellow classmates, especially in reference to the "Discussions." When communicating with your Professor, courtesy is the best method and I will provide respect and courtesy to you.

Attendance Policy:

Online Attendance Requirements

Qwickly Attendance on D2L

- Located under "Course Activities"
- Check-in period will start on Sunday each week.
- You must check in each week.

Your "Attendance" grade will be calculated in the following way:

- Present (100%); If you have logged into D2L and have completed all of the assignments on C4E. If have already completed the C4E assignments, you still need to login to D2L during that week at least once.
- Late (80%) If you have logged into D2L but haven't completed all or some of the C4E assignments. If you have completed all or some the assignments on C4E but have not logged into D2L.
- Absent (0%) If you haven't logged into D2L or completed any of the assignments on C4E
 - Attendance is IMPORTANT in an Online class. Logging in and completing assignments is essential.

- A student who anticipates the inability to complete assignments should notify the instructor in advance.
- Incomplete assignments, quizzes, exams, spotty logins, non-communication will inhibit the successful completion of this course.
- If you have not completed the required Assignments, Quizzes and Discussions by the Due Dates you will receive a F.
- The instructor will not drop a student from this course for any reason. It is the sole responsibility of the student to withdraw. A student desiring to withdraw must do so officially through the Registrar's Office. Failure to officially withdraw by the last day to withdraw and receive a "W" will result in a grade of F for the course. Students considering dropping a course should talk to the instructor before dropping.
- If you have not completed ASSIGNMENTS, QUIZZES, EXAMS or communicated with me regarding your lack of interactions by the Mid-Term (October 19), you must drop this class or you will receive an F.
- If you are experiencing difficulty logging in and completing the required assignments, quizzes, tests because of work, illness, or technology problems please confer with me as soon as you are aware of the problem so that we can address your situation together.

Six Drop Rule:

Students who enrolled in Texas public institutions of higher education as first-time college students during the Fall 2007 term or later are subject to section 51.907 of the Texas Education Code, which states that an institution of higher education may not permit a student to drop (withdraw with a grade of "W") from more than six courses, including courses that a transfer student has previously dropped at other Texas public institutions of higher education that have already been counted against their six drop limit. Each student should fully understand this drop limit before you drop any course. Please see a Counselor or Advisor in our Student Services area for additional information and assistance. For more information, please go to <http://www.lonestar.edu/course-drops.htm>.

Last Day to Drop (Official Day): September 4

Last Day to Withdraw: November 9

Syllabus Change:

While every attempt has been made to prepare this syllabus and class schedule in final form, it will be the instructor's prerogative to make any changes as may be deemed necessary in order to meet the learning outcomes of the course. Students will be notified in writing (via D2L Announcements) of any changes.

Lone Star College System Policies:

Please use the following link to find ALL LSC policies, procedures, and student success information. It is your personal, academic, and legal responsibility to know and adhere to the information provided.

COVID-19 Statement:

Lone Star College is dedicated to the health and safety of all employees and students with a strong commitment to student engagement and success. In coordination with federal, state, and local mandates and guidelines, Lone Star College has established general COVID-19 prevention expectations below. Campus-specific COVID-19 protocols shall be provided to you by campus presidents.

The expectations and protocols may be changed as the COVID-19 situation evolves. Please direct campus protocol questions to the campus president.

Lone Star College supports students with online tutoring, online bookstore access, online library resources, with access to Office 365 available. Information about tutoring and available resources may be found at <https://www.lonestar.edu/Student-Resources.htm>.

Lone Star College implemented the COVID-19 Prevention Expectations listed below for students attending class on a Lone Star College campus during the 2020 Fall Semester. Be sure to stay home if you are feeling ill or if you have been exposed to someone who has tested positive for illness.

On-Campus and In the Classroom

- You must properly wear a mask that adequately covers your mouth and nose.

oYou should put your mask on upon exiting your vehicle in the campus parking lot. Unless otherwise provided by law, you will not be allowed on a campus or remain on a campus without a mask.

oIf you need a mask, the campus will provide you one at the designated campus entry checkpoint.

oFailing to wear a mask or refusing to wear a mask while on a Lone Star College campus is considered a Student Conduct Code violation.

oProceed to the designated campus entry checkpoint.

oYou must submit to a temperature check at the Campus Screening Checkpoint.

oYou should stay at least six feet from others while on campus.

oYou should sanitize your hands regularly, but especially prior to entering a classroom and when leaving.

Notifications of Possible Exposure

- Lone Star College will notify you of possible exposure to COVID-19 if a person who was in your area of campus while you were on campus tested positive.

- In case of building closure, your instructor will notify you of the plan for continuing the course.

Kingwood Information

Kingwood check-in stations are located at the CLA and SCC buildings. Students are encouraged to park in lots C and A and allow adequate time upon arrival for check-in procedures before the start of class. During the check-in process your temperature will be taken and should it be elevated, you will not be allowed to gain access to campus. If this situation occurs, please contact your instructor immediately and inform them as to the reason for your absence. Kingwood is dedicated to maintaining your safety and the health and wellness of all students and employees is our primary priority. If you have COVID-19, symptoms of COVID-19, or been exposed to someone who has tested positive, please report your illness or exposure to LSC-ReportVirus@lonestar.edu.

Behavior Intervention Team:

For student behavior issues, contact the campus person handling discipline issues, and contact the police department for any serious issues.

Veteran Statement:

For more information on Veterans' Affairs click here Veterans' Affairs Office or visit the Veteran's Office on campus.
