

Course Required Materials / Text:

Rauhut, Nils Ch. Ultimate Questions: Thinking About Philosophy. Second Edition.
Pearson Longman, 2007.

Class Meeting Time and Location

1:00 to 2:20 p.m. T/Th, Building A Room 207

Class Dynamics:

Assigned text readings for class meetings should be read in advance for the day assigned.

There will be a Readings Quiz for each assignment at the beginning of the class designated for a reading assignment. There will be twenty-five readings quizzes in the Fall 2010 semester. No make-ups on readings quizzes will be given, but you may drop your three lowest quiz grades. True / False questions from readings quizzes will supply material for questions on examinations, so you will want to keep the quizzes to prepare for examinations.

Lectures will be the foundation of class discussion and examination contents. Lectures will seek to inform and to challenge the student to critical consideration and knowledge of the course subject matter.

Class discussion of lectures and readings is welcomed and encouraged. Such discussion should be informed, thoughtful, respectful of the views of others, and open to new (or old) ideas and perspectives. Students are not required to endorse any of the personal views of the instructor or of the course text.

Examinations

Study Guides will be provided prior to each major examination. If you fill out the study guide substantively and completely and turn in the study guide prior to the examination, a grade of '60' on the examination is assured. And the use of the study guide can greatly assist you in making a grade higher than 'D' on the examination!

Major Examinations will evidence the student's mastery of the course material. Three non-comprehensive examinations will be given.

Make-up Examinations: Missed examinations, for whatever reason, will result in a grade of '0.' However, as the lowest major exam grade of all students is dropped, if you miss only one major exam, the '0' will be dropped. Additionally, if you miss a second major exam but turn in the study guide (substantively and completely filled out) prior to the next class meeting after the exam date, you may (possibly) receive a '50' for that second missed major exam. Any further missed exams will receive a grade of '0.'

Comprehensive Examination: On the final examination day, in addition to examination #3, a comprehensive examination will also be given. The final examination will be worth 12.5% of your course grade and will consist of matching and definition questions from exams #1 and #2 and #3.

Course Essay:

Each student will turn in a 3-5 page, double-spaced, 12 font essay in response to the topic: "My Personal Philosophy of Life." This essay will be worth 12.5% of your course grade.

- *This is not a research paper and does not require documentation unless you utilize sources or cite material that are not your own creative material / words.
- *Essays will be evaluated on the basis of the thoughtfulness (in both description and analysis) and course-interaction (responding to some of the issues / topics covered in the course) evidenced by the essay.
- *see "Sample Student Essay" at www.lonestar.edu/blogs/mwhitten
- * Essays are due Class #29 = December 9

Attendance Policy!!!:

There are 30 class dates in the Fall 2010 semester. There are no 'excused absences,' but you may miss up to THREE classes (for whatever reasons) without any special penalty.

Each class missed AFTER FOUR classes will result in THREE points being deducted from your final course average. You are expected to attend at least twenty-two complete classes. MORE THAN EIGHT class absences ordinarily requires that you drop the course (if occurring before the official Drop / Withdrawal Deadline on November 12 - or receive an 'F' for the course. Students should be on time for, and attentive-participative, during each class session.

- *If you arrive late for a class (= after readings quiz has been taken up), inform me of your presence at the end of class - otherwise you will have been counted absent.
- *Students arriving more than twenty minutes late for class will be accorded ½ absence. (After three missed classes, each ½ absence will result in a 1.5 -point deduction from your final course average / grade)
- *Students 'sleeping' (head down on desk, etc.), web-surfing, text-messaging, etc. during class or using class time for any purpose other than philosophy education will be counted as absent. ('Attendance' is more than your mere physical presence!)
- *Please tell me prior to class if you will need to leave any class early. I know that this is sometimes necessary, but leaving class early for any reason will count as 1/2 absence.

Cell Phones and Laptops!!!

Unless there is a special need that you communicate to me prior to the beginning of class, all cell phones must be silenced, put away and unused during class.

- *Using cell phones in class text-messaging, web surfing, etc. will result in the student being counted as absent for the class.
- *Students leaving the classroom to take / make a phone call will be counted as absent.
- *Students staring into their laps with both hands below the table will be regarded as text-messaging and will be counted absent.

Laptop computers may be used for note-taking purposes only. Laptops may only be used by students sitting in the front two rows of the classroom. As there is usually enough lecture content to keep you busily typing during class, students not doing so will be presumed to be using their laptops for others purposes than note taking and will be counted as absent for that class.

On Dropping the Course:

Students who consider dropping the course due to excessive absences or low grades should consult with the instructor first! Mitigating circumstances and potential may be considered if the student is having difficulty fulfilling attendance and grade requirements of the course. If the student does need to drop the course, it is the STUDENT 'S responsibility to do so officially.

Determination of Course Grade:

Grades will be assigned on a scale of:

90 to 100	A
80 to 89	B
70 to 79	C
60 to 69	D
Below 60	F

Your course grade will be determined according to the following:

Readings Quizzes:	25%
Examination #1:	25% **
Examination #2:	25% 	the lowest of these three exam grades will be 'dropped.'
Examination #3:	25% **
Comprehensive Examination :	12.5%
Semester Essay:	12.5%

Plagiarism and Cheating

In the case of plagiarism (claiming that words and ideas of others are your own and/or not indicating the source of ideas), the instructor reserves the right to give the student a zero for the assignment. In the case of cheating in the course of a quiz/exam, the instructor reserves the right to give the student or students a zero for the quiz/exam.

Honors Credit Course:

Qualifying students may take this course for honors credit. If you are not already a member of the Montgomery College Honors Program, see Sam Thomas, Building E, Office 209e (Samuel.L.Thomas@Lonestar.edu) or Karin Branham, Building A, Office 200b (Karin.Branham@Lonestar.edu)) for qualifications and requirements for the honors contract and credit. If you are a member of the Honors Program already, then set up an appointment to discuss the requirements for honors credit for this course.

Your Professor:

Mark Weldon Whitten, 'Professor' of Philosophy and Religion

B.A. Baylor University (magna cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa)
M.Div. Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary
Ph.D. Baylor University

My office is located in Building A Suite 200 #K, my office phone number is 936.273.7492, and my email is mark.w.whitten@Lonestar.edu.

'Office Hours': You may 'drop by' without an appointment during official office hours:

MWF: (9:55 to 10:30 and 11:30 to 11:55 a.m. T/TH: 11:25 a.m. to 12:55 p.m.

You may also call to set up an appointment during these hours -- or for some other mutually agreeable time if an appointment during official office hours is not possible.

Counseling

If you find yourself in any kind of academic or personal 'distress' during the semester, please see BELS Division counselor Rachel Phelps (936-271-6157, Building A office 220a). She offers personal, academic, and career counseling and can put you in touch with other helpful campus resources.

Take note of the 'information and resources' located at the end of this syllabus.

Some Observations on Student Success:

1. Montgomery College and your professor are committed to doing our best to facilitate your academic success. There are many sources of aid in your educational quest, beginning with your professor and also available through the Learning Center and other Montgomery College programs. If you need help in your learning, seek and ask!
2. But YOU, the student, are fundamentally and ultimately responsible for your own learning.
It is vitally important that you take responsibility for your learning!
Not only will this promote your success now as a student, but it will serve to develop the personal responsibility and self-discipline that is necessary for success in your future career and in every aspect of life.
3. Becoming educated / learning is work -- often hard work -- and it may be helpful to regard being a student as your 'job' (or another job in addition to your 'real job'), requiring all of the commitment, effort, and discipline that it takes to be successful in a job.
4. So, attend class whenever possible and as required. Pay attention, be an 'active listener,' and participate in class. Take good class notes and study adequately for examinations. Collaborate with your fellow students in studying for examinations (study groups can be very helpful!).

5. Take good care of yourself physically and psychologically-emotionally (get adequate rest, especially the night before an examination!). Give yourself time to do your best work on papers and projects (don't procrastinate!)
6. Keep up with your work – don't start 'sliding' through the semester and find yourself at the end of the semester not having the materials, information, or time to do well on final exams, papers, and projects.
7. Be aware of how the new communication technologies (computers and cell phones – Web-surfing, texting, Facebook, Twitter, etc.) are affecting you. Not only do many students spend a great deal of time using these technologies, but the mental habits (and brain structuring) which they utilize and reinforce may actually undermine your ability to engage on the focused, sustained, analytical thinking that is so important to intellectual development and academic success.
8. Finally, believe in yourself – that you can succeed and even excel as a student – and do your best. Then take satisfaction in whatever you accomplish, for it will be your best (and YOUR BEST is all anyone can expect).

PHILOSOPHY: LOVING WISDOM / 'INTELLIGENT SUBJECTIVITY' COURSE OUTLINE AND SCHEDULE

“At the root of the fundamental acts of human life lies the making of intelligent decisions. The ancient name for making such decisions well is wisdom. Philosophy is love of wisdom. It is the study of intelligent subjectivity.” (Michael Novak)

II. What is Knowledge? (How Do We Obtain It?): 'Epistemology'

"Most people go through life with a whole world of beliefs that have no sort of rational justification. One person's world of beliefs is apt to be incompatible with another person's, so that they both cannot be right. People's opinions are mainly designed to make them feel comfortable; truth for most people is a secondary consideration. Mistaken beliefs do not, as a rule, enable you to achieve good purposes. If your means are to be adequate to your ends, you must have knowledge, not merely superstition or prejudice." (Bertrand Russell)

IV. “What in the World” is Reality? (Real Knowing) :’Metaphysics’

“[Metaphysical] World views are the most fundamental interpretive frameworks we use to understand reality. A world view marks out various orders of reality and illusion, it gives some sense of what is reasonable and irrational, it orients action by defining the concepts in terms of which we discern what is good and bad, it provides the framework within which we have some sense of what might be hoped for and what is unrealistic to expect. . . . A world view may be largely unarticulated; indeed, what distinguishes a world view philosophically is often what goes without saying, what is so basic that it is simply assumed and never questioned.”
(Warren Nord)

V. Does God Exist?: Philosophy of Religion (Philosophical Theology)

"Philosophy of religion is an attempt to discover by rational interpretation of religion and its relation to other types of experience, the truth of religious attitudes and practices. . . . If life's supreme values are really at stake in religion, it is of the utmost importance that they be rigorously defined and criticized. If our conception of them can be improved, it should be; if they are false, it is essential not to treat error as supreme value."
(Edgar Sheffield Brightman)

VI. “What Shall I DO?”: Ethics

*“Commitment to normative principles is not a matter of choice; it is inherent in being a functioning human person, and thus in being capable of choice. Commitment to principles of moral criticism is inherent in personhood. Moral education, as education in logic, taps into imperatives inherent in one’s being as a person.”
